

Internal Lab Examination - Attendance Sheet

III-CSE (AI&ML) -Sec -A

SUBJECT: Full Stack Web Development

Course Code: 23CM4121

DATE: 08-10-26

TIME: 1:00 PM-03:30 PM

Question 1: A college wants to create a simple Student Registration System.

Create an HTML registration form with:

Student Name, Roll Number, Email, Branch, Gender, Mobile Number

Use CSS to make the form attractive and properly aligned.

Create an Express.js server.

When the student submits the form, store the details in a students.json file.

Create a route to display all registered students.

CO2

Question 2: A hotel wants a simple web application to collect room booking details.

Requirements:

Create an HTML booking form with:

Customer Name, Email, Mobile Number, Room Type — Single/Double/Deluxe, Check-in Date, and Number of Guests

Apply CSS styling to the form and booking table.

Use Express.js to receive the submitted data.

Store booking details in bookings.json.

Create a route to display all bookings in a table.

CO2

Question 3: A travel agency wants a simple application to register customers for travel packages.

Create an HTML form containing:

Customer Name, Email, Mobile Number, Destination, Travel Date and Number of Persons

Use CSS to design the form.

Create an Express.js backend to handle the form submission.

Store the submitted information in travel.json.

Create a route /packages to display all registered customers.

CO2

Question 4: A company wants a basic Employee Leave Application System.

Create an HTML form with:

Employee Name, Employee ID, Department, Leave Type — Casual/Sick/Earned, From Date To Date and Reason

Use CSS to create a clean and professional form.

Use Express.js to process the submitted form.

Store leave applications in leave.json,

Create a route to display all leave applications.

CO2

Question 5: A college wants a simple application to register students. Develop a React application containing a form with: Student Name, Email, Branch, Mobile Number

Create the form using React.

Send the form data to an Express.js backend using POST.

Store the data in students.json or MongoDB.

Create a GET API to retrieve students.

Display all registered students.

CO3

Question 6: A library wants a simple application to maintain book details. Create a React form containing: Book Name, Author Name, Category and Price

Create the form using React.

Use Express.js to receive the book data.

Store book details in books.json or MongoDB.

Create a GET API to retrieve book.

Display the books.

CO3

Question 7: A shop wants a simple application to maintain product information. Create a React application with a form containing: Product Name, Category, Price and Quantity

Create a React form for entering product details.

Send the data to Express.js using POST.

Store the product details in products.json or MongoDB.

Create a GET API to retrieve products.

Display all products.

CO3

Question 8: A college wants a basic login system for students to access its portal.

Create a React application with:

Registration - Student Name, Email and Password

Login- Email and Password

Use React for the UI and use Express.js for backend APIs to Store registration details in college.json or MongoDB.

Implement registration using POST.

Implement login using POST.

Display an appropriate success/error message.

CO4

Question 9: A hotel wants to develop a simple Customer Registration and Login System.

Create a React application with:

Registration Form- Customer Name, Email and Password

Login Form- Email and Password

The application should:

Allow a customers to register using the registration form and Send registration details to an Express.js backend. Store the student details in customer.json or MongoDB.

Validate the email and password using an Express.js API. Display "Login Successful" for valid credentials and "Invalid Email or Password" for invalid credentials.

CO4

Question 10: Design a simple College Event Website using HTML, CSS, and JavaScript.
Create a header displaying the event name.
Display the following event details: Event Date, Venue, Event Description
Add a Register Now button. When the user clicks the Register Now button, display a registration page/form. The registration form should collect basic participant details such as: Name, Email and And Mobile Number
When the user submits the registration form, use JavaScript to display the message: "Registration Successful."
Use CSS for page layout, styling, and presentation. CO1

Question 11: Design a Login Page using HTML, CSS, and JavaScript.
Create a form containing: Username, Password and Login button
Use CSS to create a simple attractive login page.
Check whether username and password are entered.
Display "Login Successful" if both are entered.
Otherwise display "Please enter all details". CO1

Question 12: Design a simple Restaurant Website using HTML, CSS, and JavaScript.
Create a header displaying the restaurant name.
Display the following: Restaurant Description, Opening Hours, Menu Items and Add an Order Now button.
When the user clicks the Order Now button, display an order form.
The order form should contain: Customer Name, Food Item and Quantity
When the user submits the order form, use JavaScript to display the message: "Order Placed Successfully."
Use CSS for page layout, styling, and presentation. CO1

Internal Examiner

Prof. Dr. K. Selvani Deepthi
Head Of Department
CSE – AI & ML